

Saint Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." - Mk 7:14-15

"How great is Thy goodness, which Thou hast stored up for those who fear Thee, which Thou hast wrought for those who take refuge in Thee, before the sons of men!" (Psalm 31:19 NABE).

From your pastor . . .

I was recently asked why we do not exchange the sign of peace during the Mass. When the obligation to attend Sunday Mass was reinstated by Bishop Callahan, he indicated that the priest should not encourage the faithful to extend a sign of peace with the dictum: "Let us offer each other a sign of peace." I have been following the Bishop's request in this regard, however there is nothing preventing people from extending a sign of peace to others by taking their own initiative in doing so.

Be certain to reserve your ticket for the Father/Son banquet that is scheduled for Wednesday, September 8th at 6:00 p.m. at the Phoenix Center.

Please make the effort to sell or buy the tickets for the Festival Drawing that has been made available to you. With everyone participating we can provide some important financial support for our parish.

Below, I will continue with the teaching that has been ongoing over the past weeks concerning the Church's response to the issue of racism. The document that I am reproducing in italic type is from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, entitled, "Open Wider Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love – A Pastoral Letter Against Racism."

Working in Our Churches

Of course, racism will not end overnight. Still, we pledge these actions and hope that more actions will follow. We instruct our priests, deacons, religious brothers and sisters, lay leaders, our parish staffs, and all the faithful to endeavor to be missionary disciples carrying forth the message of fraternal charity and human dignity. We ask them to fight the evil of racism by educating themselves, reflecting on their personal thoughts and actions, listening to the experience of those who have been affected by racism, and by developing and supporting programs that help repair the damages caused by racial discrimination. We need to continue to educate ourselves and our people about the great cultural diversity within our Church. One way to do this is to support actively the cause for canonization of the first African American saint. We can also promote knowledge of the martyrs, blessed and saints of the different cultural groups and nationalities present in our midst, and propose them as models of faith for the entire Church. So many of our parishes are richly diverse, composed of people from various cultures and ethnic groups, such that they can be a model for the whole Church and for the country. We will redouble our efforts to promote vocations to marriage, priesthood, and religious life- especially within communities of color- so as to better reflect all of the People of God. We commit to preach with regularity homilies directed to the issue of racism and its impact on our homes, families, and neighborhoods, particularly on certain feast days and national holidays. We direct our priests and deacons to do the same. We call on theologians to help us address these issues as well. In this task, it is essential to understand, and to help others see, how racism diminishes everyone – society as a whole- and not just those who are directly affected by it.

Until I write again, may God bless you and all the parishioners of Saint Mary's Parish.
