ALL SOULS DAY

From your pastor . . .

This Monday is a Holy Day – the Solemnity of All Saints. There are two Masses being made available. The first is at 8:15 a.m. and the second at 5:15 p.m. There is no obligation attached to the Holy Day this year. The Memorial of All Souls will be celebrated on Tuesday with a Mass at 8:15 a.m. The faithful are encouraged to make a visit to a cemetery and while there prayer for the Faithful Departed.

As I mentioned at the end of the Masses this past Sunday, Bishop Callahan reported that he has contracted Covid-19. As of writing this column I don't believe he has been hospitalized and is reporting mild symptoms. Please keep the Bishop in your prayers as well as anyone else you know who is struggling to recover from Covid-19.

In regard to those who are recovering from Covid-19, I will share with you the last correspondence we have received from Cardinal Raymond L. Burke who is slowly recovering from a very severe reaction to the COVID-19 virus. (For those who do not know, Cardinal Burke spent his childhood at Saint Mary's Parish where he received Baptism, Penance and his First Holy Communion.) His letter appears below in italics.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Thanking you once again, with all my heart, for your faithful and generous prayers for the recovery of my health, I write to update you on the progress of my rehabilitation. In thanking you, I thank, above all, Our Lord, who, in answer to your prayers, has preserved me in life. I thank, too Our Lady of Guadalupe, and all the Saints through whose intercession you have offered and are offering prayers for me.

On September 3rd last, I left the hospital to take up residence in a house near to where the closest members of my family live. The house is well adapted for the rehabilitation program that I am following. My priest secretary has now come from Rome to stay with me to assist with my program of rehabilitation. He is also helping me to respond to correspondence and to deal with the many schedule changes necessitated by the time I was in the hospital and now by the several weeks which I will need to recover as full as possible from the illness.

Although I am making steady progress, it is slow. The doctors and therapists who direct the program of rehabilitation assure me that it is necessarily so and that I am doing well. For my part, I am trying to grow in patience. My principal challenges, at the present, are regaining certain fundamental physical skills needed for my daily living, and overcoming a general fatigue and difficulty in breathing, which are typical for those who have suffered the contagion of the Covid-19 virus. I cannot predict when I will be able to return to my normal activities. Seemingly, it will be several more weeks.

I regret that I am unable to respond to your communications individually, since I must concentrate my limited energy on regaining my forces. For that reason, too, I must limit the number of telephone calls and personal visits which I receive. I am deeply grateful for your understanding.

Our Lord has preserved me in life for some work which He wished me to carry out, with the hope of His grace, for love of Him and of His Mystical Body, the Church. I am determined to use the present time of rehabilitation in the best manner possible, so that I will be prepared to carry out His work. Throughout the time in the hospital and now, I continue to place myself into the care of Our Blessed Mother, so that my heart, one with her Immaculate Heart, may rest always securely in Our Lord's Most Sacred Heart. As a spiritual father in the Church, I have counted heavily upon the help of Saint Joseph, whose Most Pure Heart embraced the Heart of Mary, his true spouse, and of Jesus, her Divine Son confided to this fatherly care.

Please continue to pray for my full recovery. For my part, each day I offer my prayers and sufferings for your many intentions. Let us all pray and offer sacrifices for the world and the Church, which are beset with so much confusion and error to the great and even mortal harm of many souls.

Asking God to bless you, your homes and all your labors, I remain

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary, and in the Purest Heart of Saint Joseph, Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke 25 September 2021

Let us keep Cardinal Burke in our daily prayer. Until I write again, may God bless you and all the parishioners of Saint Mary's Parish.

Monsignor Roger J. Scheckel

Eternal rest grant unto them, O
Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Besides the help we procure for the souls of the departed, Jesus has promised that for every sacrifice we make, he will reward us a hundredfold in eternity. The promise of heaven is ours.
