From your pastor . . .

This column is from last week's bulletin that did not arrive until this past Wednesday.

I take this opportunity to extend congratulations to the children of our parish who received their First Holy Communion this past Sunday: Elsa Castilo, Declan Jelinek, Colin Kauffman, Ethan Kauffman, Finley Kepler, Reese Kohlstedt, Rohen Logue, Sofia Mata, Kevin Pacheco, Luke Perna, Vessel Rush, Dylan Serna, Gage Tennant, Alex Ueek, Sienna Weeden, Molly Wiess, Morgan Worthington.

This is a wonderful occasion in their spiritual lives and we are very happy to have shared with them their joy in receiving Jesus for the first time through the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

Now that the renovation of the Church has concluded, I wish to use this column to give a financial accounting of the project. As you will recall, before the project began, we engaged in the diocesan capital campaign, entitled Inspired by the Spirit. The amount that had been assigned to our parish was $480,000. To date through the generosity of 126 parishioners, pledges of $564,732.73 have been made. Cash received thus far is $360,825.21 The average amount pledged by those participating in the campaign is $4,517.86. When all the pledges are honored (over the next four years) the total amount of $423,861 is to be returned to our parish. Thus far, the amount of $205,448.01 has been returned to the parish and used to pay the costs of the renovation.

The following is an accounting of the costs of the renovation:

Asbestos removal - $12,900

Refurbished Pews/new kneelers, floor tile replacement, painting of church, decorative work - $282,831.

Terrazzo cleaning and polishing – vestibules, staircases, kitchen, undercroft restrooms - $54,640.

Total: $350,371.

I wish to again thank all who were involved by contributing to the renovation through their time, talent, and treasure.

Finally, at some time in the future stop in and look at the new hardwood-style floor that has been installed in the gymnasium. This beautiful floor will be a much safer surface for our children and youth to use for physical education and sporting events. A special thanks to those who sacrificed to make this project possible.

Until I write again, may God bless you and all the parishioners of Saint Mary's Parish.

Monsignor Roger J. Scheckel

“Take; this is my body”

—Mark 14:22

The presence of Christ in the Eucharist is real, true, and substantial.

“Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love.” (St. John Paul II, Dominicae cenae, no. 3)

“It is called: Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God.” (CCC, no. 1328)

Eucharist “makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior.” (CCC, no. 1330)

The Eucharist is the Risen Christ

On Easter Sunday, two disciples were leaving Jerusalem without hope as they believed that the Savior was dead. Jesus joined them as they walked but the disciples did not recognize Him as He now had a glorified body. When Jesus sat down with the disciples at Emmaus, they recognized Him in the “breaking of bread,” which was the Eucharist.

Let’s pray this right now and every day this week: Lord, make my heart burn with a desire to read Your Word in Sacred Scripture.

This week, read how Jesus explained how He fulfilled the Old Testament in His Passion, Death and Resurrection, and allowed the disciples to recognize Him in the breaking of the bread in Luke 24:13-35.
