Fifth Sunday of Lent

LENT

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.
Proverbs 3:5-6 NIV

From your pastor . . .

We have received the definitive word from the Richland Center Community Center that because of COVID-19 restrictions we will be unable to host the Sportsmen's Extravaganza that was scheduled for Saturday, April 17th. However, we will hold the drawing for the forty acres of hunting land or $25,000 cash on that day. The winner will be announced on our parish website. We have scheduled next year's Extravaganza for Saturday, April 30, 2022.

I am writing this column on the eve of my traveling to May Clinic in Rochester Minnesota for surgery that is to replace my right knee. I couple of you asked why I was going to Rochester for this procedure. It is because the surgeon who will perform the operations is the same surgeon who replaced my left knee in the Spring of 2011. Because he did a good job the first time, I thought it prudent to employ him a second time. He is a Catholic and like the first time when prepping for the surgery we spend part of our time talking about what is going on in the Church.

As I mentioned at the end of the Masses this past weekend, please consider giving me a generous remembrance in your prayers, praying for a quick and complete recovery. Also, as I mentioned, Father Kurt Apfelbeck will be the celebrant for this Sunday and the next as well. He will be assisted by Deacon Tully, who also will be presiding at some Communion Service outside of Mass during the week-days. You will have to consult the bulletin to know what days those services will take place. Also, if there are any pastoral emergencies, please call the rectory for assistance.

As we come closer to Holy Week, I would ask your prayers for Ryan Tydrich, who is preparing to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night. He will make a profession of Faith as well as receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and his First Holy Communion at the Vigil Mass. We look forward to welcoming Ryan into the Faith and becoming a member of our parish community.

There will be some changes in how the Triduum (the three great days of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday) will be celebrated. We have been directed to not have any procession in, out or around the Church – such as we do on Holy Thursday. Also we have been directed that there will be no washing of feet on at the Holy Thursday Mass – (which is fine with me as I contend with a knee that will still be healing). It will be a little different this year in our Holy Week celebrations but it is better than last year when we did not have any public celebrations at all.

In the next couple of weeks, I have asked Deacon Tully if he would like to take up his pen and write this column while I concentrate on my recovery. You can look forward to his wise words.

Until I write again (with hopefully a new knee fully operational)may God bless you and all the parishioners of Saint Mary's Parish.

Monsignor Roger J. Scheckel
